Arts and Lectures

will host
Dr. Dennis P. Slattery to discuss learning as a mythic moment.
His new book, Reimagining Education: Essays on Reviving the Soul of Learning responds to the soul-deadening mandates of the No Child Left Behind era, bringing together essays about reviving the soul of learning . Ultimately, the book and Dr. Slattery ask, "What timeless qualities of excellence are germane to teaching and learning as they both serve the life of imagination and cultivation of the self and soul?"

Thursday 12:00- 1:30 in the Library Viewing Room
