Hi Carolyn-

Working weekly with the Veterans this past academic year has not only been rewarding for me professionally as a librarian, but has successfully provided learning support to many of those who are utilizing the Veteran's Resource Center.

I would like to once again plan on working in the Center this fall, on Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m., with your approval.

A new resource that has been purchased by the Basic Skills Committee for this next year and that I'm excited to share with the Veteran's is Learning Express. This database offers:

- ACCUPLACER Test Preparation;
- GED practice tests and preparation;
- interactive software tutorials;
- resources to help with basic math, grammar and reading;
- and they'll be able to use the Occupation Exam and Test Preparation component to discover instantly scored licensing, certification, and aptitude practice tests, online career preparation, and vital information for a wide variety of occupations.

Additionally, the District has purchased a new online catalog called OCLC that enables students to search one place for books, articles and eBooks! Isn't amazing what is available at our fingertips!

I'm looking forward to sharing these resources and much more at the Veteran's Resource Center this coming semester!
