Diana Rodriguez provided the following updates: the Vice President of Instruction position is on-target for a November/December submission to the Board of Trustees; the Grant Writer interviews have transpired, currently undergoing a reference/background check, with a formal offer of employment anticipated by the end of the week; James Smith is currently addressing the Dean vacancies through Human Resources; and the First Year Experience (FYE) Director search is in the beginning stages.

OPEN EDUCATION RESOURCES (OER) SB1359 – R. PIRES

Ramona Pires presented information regarding the pilot of open education resources (see attached.) Ramona shared future options of faculty dissemination, suggesting that the email notification process be passed to faculty chairs and /or division deans. Ramona indicated there were challenges this semester with obtaining the necessary section information due to delays with the schedule process, as well the promotion of the program to students needs to be increased as students arrived to classes after purchasing books that were available through OER. Ramona will be working with James Smith on the submission of a Project Request for coding to implement a narrow search for OER courses during the registration process. In the meantime, the OER sections are listed on the Catalog/Schedule webpage: <https://www.valleycollege.edu/academic-career-programs/class-schedule/index.php>. Ramona indicated that Jason Brady will list an OER link on the students' front-page of WebAdvisor. Ramona shared the LOGO design provided by the State, indicating we could use the logo and /or design our own. Ramona is also working with James Smith for the submission of a ZTC Degree Grant (an add-on to the ZTC Grant in the amount of $140,000-$150,000.) The ZTC Degree Grant provides students a pathway to a degree and/or certificate utilizing Open Education Resources, reducing the cost to students. Initial discussions suggest a cohort of students (40 per semester/80 per year) completing a Liberal Arts degree with a Social Science concentration. Additional information can be obtained at the OER webpage: <https://www.valleycollege.edu/open-education-resources/>
