Agenda Items
VPI Report	No updates at this time.
New Business	PHIL/RELIG Advisory Update: Adam Pave contacted Mary Copeland to update the previously approved Departmental Advisories for the Philosophy and Religious Studies courses. The courses previously had READ 015 as a departmental advisory, but the department is now requesting to change the courses with a READ 015 advisory to ENGL 101 or ENGL 101H. The department believes that it is important for students to know what they are getting into. Motion to approve the changes to the Departmental Advisories for the Philosophy and Religious Studies Courses – 1st: Kathy Adams 2nd: Ty Simpson Motion Approved
Old Business	Cultural Curriculum Audit: Mary Copeland shared a PowerPoint presentation on transforming a syllabus. The syllabus is closely aligned to the Course Outline of Record, but does your syllabus also reflect who you are as a professor? In the past, syllabi have been rule driven. Syllabi should reflect the joy of learning and need to avoid being punitive in and what it means to grow and learn from the mistakes we make. Before, the example of the syllabi was pretty black and white, now there are colored graphics, recognition of difficult content, and various languages are present. Contact information is now more personal with an avatar and is more welcoming. Using a growth mindset, the professor talked about what she valued in the class rather than threatening students with punishment. Students were given an introduction card asking for preferred pronouns to allow them to feel welcomed. Mary has done something similar asking students to complete a survey, which included asking them which grade they want in the class. This PowerPoint presentation will be sent out with the minutes for members of the Committee to share with faculty in their departments.
