New Business
Old Business	Ethnic Studies – We have heard that they have been denying courses, but Crafton had some of their courses accepted. In looking at their course outlines, we are hopeful that the Valley courses should be approved. There is a State-wide meeting on Wednesday will provide some further clarification. Janice Wilkins will work to submit courses to the UC TCA during the Summer. Course Management System – There will be a kick-off meeting about the new Course Management System, not too sure what it will involve. Hopefully, it will not be too lengthy a process since we already have CurricUNET.

Athletic Trainer Aide Certificate	Hauge	New Certificate	Mary Copeland commented on the lack of LMI data for an Athletic Trainer Aid job. It is unclear how much a student can make after graduating with this certificate. What is the viability of this program? It's the Curriculum Committee's charge to review the Appropriateness to the Mission, Need, Curriculum Standards, Adequate Resources, and Compliance. Dr. Humble had some questions about the certificate being a pathway. Will this be a stackable certificate or will this be part of a degree. The courses in this certificate will overlap with the local Kinesiology AA Degree. Dina would like to reiterate that these certificates have been approved by advisory committees and endorsed by the Regional Consortia. The Regional Consortia makes sure there isn't curriculum overlap in the region.	Motion: Paula Ferri-Milligan motioned to table these certificates until the Fall Semester with the department reviewing and providing additional data to market to students. 2 nd : Leslie Gregory Oppositions: John Banola Vicente Alvarez Ginny Evans-Perry
