ADJUS 151	J. Croy	Course Modification	Formerly CORREC 101, many colleges have a Corrections Associates Degree. The department is updating the courses from CORREC to ADJUS. San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department requires students to go to the full Sheriff's academy to become a Corrections Officer, but this degree will assist students with jobs to become federal corrections officers and becoming parole officers. Janice will review the courses to see if any are able to be added to the transfer degree.	HOLD at Full – Pending updates to degree and certificate.
ADJUS 152	J. Croy	Course Modification	Formerly CORREC 102.	HOLD at Full – Pending updates to degree and certificate.
ADJUS 153	J. Croy	Course Modification	Formerly CORREC 103.	HOLD at Full – Pending updates to degree and certificate.

The Curriculum Committee recommends that the pre-requisites and co-requisites approved be re-evaluated in the next 2-3 years by the appropriate departments/programs to ensure student success. Note: Committee members are voting on all Proposals, Requisites, Advisories, and Distributed Education.
