VPI Report
New Business	New Law Prefix (LPPS): Lisa Henkle is proposing a new prefix in order to build the Law, Public Policy, and Society transfer degree. There is a need for the LPPS course prefix for the new Law, Public Policy, and Society Associate of Arts- Transfer (AA-T) degree, as there is an option on the Transfer Model Curriculum (TMC) to utilize C-ID LPPS 110- Introduction to Law and Society and C-ID LPPS 120- Ethical Reasoning/Ethics in Practice.

The Curriculum Committee recommends that the pre-requisites and co-requisites approved be re-evaluated in the next 2-3 years by the appropriate departments/programs to ensure student success. Note: Committee members are voting on all Proposals, Requisites, Advisories, and Distance Education.

	Currently, San Bernardino Valley College (SBVC) does have the necessary articulated courses to offer the LPPS AA-T degree; however, the degree is interdisciplinary, not solely focusing on Political Science. Thus, there is a need to differentiate the LPPS AA-T degree from that of the Political Science AA-T, especially as students may not explicitly understand the difference in the catalog. Additionally, this degree must be differentiated for faculty as well, as SBVC will need to examine the minimum qualifications for faculty to teach the LPPS curriculum required for the AA-T degree. Furthermore, other California Community Colleges already offer similar LPPS prefix courses for pre-law students, making the pathway to transfer to four-year colleges and universities easier for students.
