ISER Training	We will be having advisory ISER training with the Vice President who has been assigned to us (Gohar) via Zoom. Date to be determined.
Evidence	We are now have a lot of students who have concerns about our LGBT and homeless students' use of the showers (example of evidence 3B). Paula, Ray Carlos, Rania, and College Counsel. There has been a lot of conversations in College Counsel revolving around the above subjects. As well, there has been a large number of discussions. As a process that we discussed campus wide conversations, even prior to the law being passed, showing that we were ahead of the processes being mandated by the state. Most of the team reported out on their standards. Kay brought up how much more efficient it would be to talk to people rather than just sending them the paperwork and leaving it to them to complete or not complete. Today we need to decide who each lead would like to interview so we will not be approaching the same individuals more than once. As a team, it was decided who needed to be interviewed and who would do the interviews.
Next Meeting: 4/2/19
