4 DISTRIBUTED EDUCATION

6 In order to expand access and provide greater flexibility to distant learners, the Chancellor is 7 responsible for establishing standards for distributed education programs. These programs will 8 utilize current and new technologies to deliver quality educational opportunities and will facilitate 9 the attainment of students' personal and academic goals.

10
11 All distributed education programs will adhere to the same programmatic requirements as 12 traditional classroom programs.
