

Arts, Lecture and Diversity MINUTES November 6, 2013

Shari Blackwell A	Yvette Lee
Joe Cabrales	Alma Lopez
Sharon Chapman	Willene Nelson A
Rochelle Fender	Craig Petinak
Timothy Forrest	Deanne Rabon A
Stacy Garcia A	James Stewart A
Ann Gibbons	Tatiana Vasquez
Magdalena Jacobo	Kay Weiss A
Haragewen Kinde

TOPIC	DISCUSSION and ACTION
Communication to faculty and students for Arts, Lectures and Diversity funding.	Yvette Lee sent out a detailed email to all ICC reps on funding information with an attachment of the funding request form.
Book Discussions	Yvette Lee notified members that we will have a full calendar of book discussions for spring 2014.
Event side bar to web site	Tabled until the December meeting.
Immigration Reform Debate	Yvette Lee shared information regarding Leo Chavez at UCI Anthropology Department. He is a good candidate who can argue for immigration reform as he has published books and articles on immigration issues. Committee ran out of time and did not have an opportunity to vote.
Plans for African American History Month	Yvette Lee proposed funding for speaker to lecture on TV & Radio hosting. Tavis Smiley Spring 2014 $15,600.00 Timothy Forrest motioned to approve the funding, Tatiana Vasquez seconded. The group voted to approve funding for the listed by unanimity from the Diversity Account.
South India Dance	Yvette Lee stated that the troupe director could not provide definite dates and times until the spring 2014 semester. Yvette will contact her at a later date.

Alcohol Awareness Month	James Brown as invited to speak at last year’s Red Ribbon Week. This year Yvette Lee thought it would be a good idea for him to speak during Alcohol Awareness Month. Yvette also recommended Mr. Brown because the Human Services Department and club officer asked her to invite Mr. Brown and his last speaking engagement was so well-received, they wanted to have him again. Tatiana Vasquez proposed funding for a speaker to lecture for Alcohol Awareness Month. James Brown March 26, 2014 $300.00 Tatiana Vasquez motioned to approve the funding, Timothy Forrest seconded. The group voted to approve funding for the listed by unanimity from the Arts and Lectures Account.
Adjourn:	The meeting adjourned at 2 p.m.