

Arts, Lecture and Diversity MINUTES December 4, 2013

Shari Blackwell	Yvette Lee
Joe Cabrales	Alma Lopez
Sharon Chapman A	Willene Nelson A
Rochelle Fender	Deanne Rabon
Timothy Forrest	James Stewart
Stacy Garcia	Tatiana Vasquez A
Ann Gibbons A	Kay Weiss
Magdalena Jacobo
Haragewen Kinde

TOPIC	DISCUSSION and ACTION
Paul Harris – Glass artist - $500	James Stewart proposed funding for a hands-on workshop for students. Paul Harris Spring, 2014 $500 Timothy Forrest motioned to approve the funding, Rochelle Fender seconded. The group voted to approve funding by unanimity from the Arts & Lectures account.
Lauren Smith – Ceramic artist - $400	James Stewart proposed funding for ceramics artist to give a workshop to students. Lauren Smith Spring, 2014 $400 Stacy Garcia motioned to approve the funding, Deanne Rabon seconded. The group voted to approve funding by unanimity from the Arts & Lectures account.
Dr. Ginette Paris – psychologist & author - $750	Yvette Lee stated that Sharon Chapman would like to propose funding for a speaker to include transportation costs. Dr. Ginette Paris February, 2014 $750 Timothy Forrest motioned to approve the funding, Rochelle Fender seconded. The group voted to approve funding from the Arts & Lectures account. No opposed, 2 abstentions. Approved by majority vote.
BSU funding request for Kwanzaa - $490	Yvette Lee spoke about BSU’s funding request for Kwanzaa. The committee agreed that there was not enough time to approve for the December event as they would like refreshments and it needs to go to board for approval.

	Yvette stated she would go back to BSU and ask about another date. This could possibly be planned for December, 2014.
Plans for Earth Day	Tabled until the February meeting.
Update on Tavis Smiley	Yvette Lee stated that due to complications with gym and time for Tavis Smiley that the committee will have to postpone his speaking engagement to San Bernardino Valley College. The Committee agreed to revisit approval in the 2014-15 fiscal year with the Auditorium would be available.
Professor Brenda E. Stevenson of UCLA for African American History Month - $500 (starting honorarium)	Yvette Lee proposed funding for a speaker from UCLA to lecture during African American History Month. Yvette stated that the starting Honorarium is $500 for a 50 minute lecture. Brenda Stevenson February, 2014 $650.00 The committee discussed paying $150 for travel and meals and $500 for speaking for a total of $650 out of the Diversity fund. Kay Weiss motioned to approve the funding, Joe Cabrales seconded. The group voted to approve funding by unanimity from the Diversity account.
Professor Leo Chavez of UCI – Immigration Reform Debate - $1,000	Yvette Lee proposed that the committee approve $1,000 for Professor Leo Chavez of UCI to give an Immigration Reform Debate for one hour in the Conference Center Business Building. Yvette shared that she is still looking for a speaker from the opposing side. The committee shared that Ed Millican should be contacted about representing the opposing side. The committee agreed to table the approval of funding until both sides are confirmed.
Professor Alex Espinoza – SBVC alumnus & author for Humanities Day - $1,000	Yvette Lee shared that Professor Alex Espinoza could speak for Humanities Day. No date is set yet. The committee tabled the approval of funding until there is more time to discuss specifics and have a date set. Yvette stated Humanities Day is usually the first week in May.
Professor Reza Aslan of UCR to come and talk about his book Zealot - $??? TBA	Tabled for the February meeting.
Other:	Joe Cabrales that our committee look into getting other cultures such as Asian.
Adjourn:	The meeting adjourned at 2 p.m.